

Updated: 7/22/05

States in which the FBI Conducts NICS Checks for All Firearms Transactions

Alabama	Kentucky	Ohio
American Samoa	Louisiana	Oklahoma
Delaware	Maine	Puerto Rico
D.C.	Massachusetts	Rhode Island
Guam	Minnesota	South Dakota
Indiana	Missouri	Vermont
Kansas	New Mexico	West Virginia

NICS States that have an ATF-Qualified Alternate Permit

Alaska	Idaho	N. Mariana Islands
Arizona	Mississippi	South Carolina
Arkansas	Montana	Texas
Georgia	New York	Wyoming
	North Dakota

States that Act as the Point of Contact (POC) for All Firearms Transactions

California	New Jersey
Colorado	Oregon
Connecticut	Pennsylvania
Illinois	Tennessee
	Virginia

POC States that have an ATF-Qualified Alternate Permit

Hawaii	Nevada
Utah

States that Act as a Partial Point of Contact (POC) for NICS Checks

Florida	Florida Dept. of Law Enforcement for all firearms, except licensees may contact the FBI for certain pawn transactions
Iowa	Permit POC for handguns FBI – long guns
Maryland	Maryland State Police – handguns and assault weapons FBI – long guns and pawn redemptions
Michigan	Permit POC for handguns FBI – long guns
Nebraska	Permit POC for handguns FBI – long guns
New Hampshire	New Hampshire Department of Safety for handguns FBI – long guns
North Carolina	Permit POC for handguns FBI – long guns
Washington	Chief law enforcement officer for handguns without CPL FBI - for handguns with CPL FBI – long guns
Wisconsin	Wisconsin Department of Justice for handguns FBI – long guns